(a) Describe how the depth of the canal changes as the horizontal distance from the left edge of the canal increases.

(b) Sketch a graph representing the depth of the canal edge of the canal needs to be determined.

(c) Determine an equation representing each of the components of the graph.

(d) Relate the parts of the equations to your description in part (a).